

Raising the Wind. John Boyd, a shoemaker of Newport, has, we learn, entered complaints against all the towns in this County, Lempster excepted, for not furnishing guide boards, as required by the Revised Statutes of the State. Some of the towns he has "snubbed" to the amount of one hundred or two dollars, and as the law allows the complainant a small fee for his services, he will make something handsomely out of the speculation. It took a yankee to conjure up that way of raising the wind.—John has done something to benefit the travelling community, however, and we don't blame him much for throwing aside his lap stove for this easier mode of replenishing his coffers. His own town, we are told, will be the greatest sufferer.

Clarendon (N. H.) Eagle.

"When rogues fall out," &c. The Washington Globe charges the editor of the Madisonian with getting a portion of certain men's salaries, as a bribe, in giving them to procure offices. In reply, the Madisonian charges—and he says he has the proof—that the rogue of the Globe actually bribed a Government officer to furnish a job of printing worth $100,000, giving him $1,500 as the reward of his corruption?

St. Louis.—The official census shows the population of St. Louis to be 35,910.

Singular Fatality. A British soldier accidentally fell into the water at Quebec, Canada, a few days since, when a sentinel walking by hardly attempted to get him out by reaching him the butt of his musket. The drowning man grasped the weapon, and in his struggle was it discharged—the contents of which entered the head of the sentinel, and killed him instantly.

One hundred and fifty liquor sellers in State Prison! When in the Penitentiary last Sabbath, addressing the convicts, we requested all of those who had been engaged in selling intoxicating liquors, to raise their right hands, more than one-third raised their hands. Yes, one hundred and fifty liquor sellers in the Ohio State's Prison!

Watchmen of the Valley.

A convict in the Auburn State Prison was murdered by a fellow convict on Sunday morning last, whilst they were marching into the chapel for religious services. The murderer was committed with the half of a pair of shears. He had for some time meditated the act.

Question. How shall we punish men who commit murder while in prison? It is barbarous to put them in solitary confinement; it is more than barbarous to hang them. How then should they be punished?

Answer. Let them out!—Pt. Chronicle.

Gen. Cameron, the newly elected U. S. Senator of Pennsylvania, served a regular apprenticeship to the printing business, and was a practical printer for a number of years.

A Bad Plan. How many fond mothers and frugal housewives keep their pretty daughters and their preserves for some extra occasion—some "big bug" or other—till both turn sour. This seems to us marvellous poor economy.

The Rochester Democrat says there is a man in that city who, with his sons, son-in-law, grandsons and grandsons in law, number 31 visitors. They are all Whigs, and all recollect temperature men. The old gentleman was a soldier in the Revolution and present at the surrender of Burgoyne.

Inauguring Anecdote. We find the following anecdote appearing in the Military Department:

"A short time since, as the mail stage was going, on a very dark night, from Boston to Portsmouth, the driver was alarmed by the cry of 'Oh, lord! we are kill every one of us.' The driver jumped off his seat, and, having got his horses, cast and demolished a road and split a board and two wagons. The driver, somewhat enraged that the gallant Hibernian should keep the middle of the road, gave him a pretty severe lecture, and concluded by asking him if he did not see the lights on the stage. 'Yes, to be sure I did, and I drive right between them!'

Hard cut at the Cloth. On a certain occasion John Adams was called up by a clergyman to make a contribution for a certain purpose? No! said the sturdy Ex-President, 'I have nothing to give for that purpose; but there are here in this vicinity six ministers, not one of whom will preach in the other's pulpit; now I will give as much, and more than any one else, to clinch these ergements.'

Hives Wanted. A bachelor at Green Bay advertises that sixteen or twenty New York or N. England damsels, of a suitable age, could enter into agreeable copartnerships by migrating to that part of Wisconsin—maids being scarce and bachelors plenty.

Come and get them—if you can.
